What have been your impressions of the GCC?

"A very well planned course. Excellent lectures. Very adventurous and exciting";

"I was surprised at how physical the camp was and how long the days were. I was very impressed at the quality and Biblical content of the lectures and I also enjoyed the realistic practicals";

"Well organised, focused and relevant, but also flexible and lecturers were approachable";

"Very well presented and organised, thorough lectures, hands-on practical outreaches, a good wide topical programme covering missions, historically to very current ongoing mission ministries today";

"I have enjoyed it very much, helpful and challenging";

"Well presented, thorough coverage and skilled, experienced presenters";

"What impressed me was the way Peter and his team lectured tons and also the way the members conducted themselves";

"Very informative and comprehensive. Well organised and illustrated. The lectures were well presented and real because the lecturers have been doing the work";

"The GCC is a great course";

"Well organised. Very good lectures";

"Frontline Fellowship is wholeheartedly dedicated to the Great Commission, old fashioned in worship, singing many hymns";

"Well organised, valid and interesting";

"So challenging to learn more about the challenges of the early missionaries and their determination";

"Outstanding!";

"It is good to see people giving up their lives to help those who are still walking the darkness";

"Killing yet refreshing!";

"Very tiring. I've been impressed the way we have been handled. The PT made a difference in my life"
