

In the recent United States Presidential Elections (and in the previous Brexit vote in the United Kingdom), we have seen just how wrong the media experts can be. Many are describing the mainstream media as the lamestream media

. A new word has been added to the English vocabulary: presstitutes.

It is now being said that so many in the mass media prostituted journalism in being so partisan in pushing propaganda to promote the Clinton and Obama secular humanist globalist agenda - instead of reporting the news. Most so called news reports, in both the print media and on TV, seem to be more biased views than non-partisan news.

Exposed

Now the mass media, CNN, BBC, CBS, NBC, Time Magazine and The New York Times have been exposed for fools, hypocrites and frauds - blinded by their bias. There are those who are referring to CNN as the Clinton News Network, BBC as the Biased Broadcasting Corporation,

Time as Slime, Newsweek (which presumptuously published on the front cover a gleaming Hillary Clinton with the title Madam President - Hillary's Path to the Whitehouse) has been dubbed

Newspeak

(in reference to George Orwell's classic book, 1984, and its prediction of thought crimes, thought police and newspeak

). US News is being called

Useless News

36 years ago the mass media got it wrong by confidently predicting a landslide victory for Jimmy Carter against Ronald Reagan in the 1980 Election.

Against All Odds

Despite all the media bias and hate campaigns mobilised against Donald Trump and all the negative predictions and fraudulent polls, an outsider, running against all odds, running on an anti-establishment platform, has won the United States Presidential Elections.

Like the Fall of the Wall

On the 27th anniversary of the Fall of the Berlin Wall (9 November 1989), a landslide on the other side of the Atlantic stunned the world. French Ambassador of the United States, Gerard Araud, stated: "After Brexit and this election, everything is now possible..."
