

Before the bombing

The Fraser Cathedral in Lui, Western Equatoria in Southern Sudan, has been hit and severely damaged. Today, Frontline Fellowship received a letter from Rev. Kenneth Baringwa in which he reports that there

The Church that Will Not Die

Reportedly about 12 bombs were dropped on each raid. At Lui, the birthplace of Christianity in Moruland

It was later rebuilt by 1983, but when the National Islamic Front government forces swept into Lui, the congregation had to again flee into the bush and the church building was vandalised. In 1997 the church was restored and since that time Frontline Fellowship has shown Christian films many times in the cathedral and conducted numerous services there. Jesus Christ is building His church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it (Matthew 16:18).

Intensified Bombing of Christian Missions and Churches

Over the last year Lui has been subjected to aerial bombardments eight times. The nearby Frontline Fellowship mission base and Christian Liberty High School has endured bombing raids by the Sudan Air Force seven times since April and Peter Hammond had 2 services interrupted by artillery or aerial bombardment just in the last year.

The image is a photograph of the Fraser Cathedral in Fraserburgh, South Africa, which was bombed during World War II. The image shows the exterior of the cathedral, which is a large, brick building with a prominent tower. The building is in a state of severe disrepair, with large sections of the brickwork missing and the structure exposed. A large plume of dust is rising from the base of the building, suggesting recent destruction. A white vehicle is partially visible on the left side of the frame.
